

logo design contest for scribendi

Scribendi is looking for your design talent! Showcase your innovation by submitting to the Scribendi logo design contest, and your work could be chosen to be the logo design used for future Scribendi communications, publicity and advertising.

Submit your ideas online at scribendi.unm.edu today and you could have a chance to win $50!

Logo designs should be grayscale, and must be submitted as a digital file saved as .jpg or .tiff file. Additional design information may be found online or by directly contacting the Scribendi staff.

Anyone is eligible to submit! Honors students may submit logo design submissions in addition to regular submissions, as submissions for this category are not added to your total count of works from other categories.
